Celebrations

NEW YEAR CELEBRATION

The Prayas family gathered at the head office to embrace the beginning of a new year together.

The children showcased their talents with beautiful dance performances and melodious music.

The staff too participated wholeheartedly in singing along and cheering up the children.

Our General Secretary actively participated in the program and ended it by singing a beautiful song. The wise words towards the end of the event by our General Secretary Mr. Amod K. Kanth and wishes for a prosperous year by our Executive Director Ms. Indu Rani Singh inspired the entire group both children and the co-workers to work together with utmost honesty as one and help bring about changes in our surroundings.

ACTIVITIES

New Delhi

Prayas , in collaboration with Delhi Traffic Police & Nehru yuva kendra, conducted a training on road safety for students and staff on 5.1.23 at Punjabi Bagh Traffic Police Training Park. After doing this training, all these students will become volunteers of Delhi Traffic Police and in future, work together with the Delhi traffic police on road safety.

The staff and students of Prayas Tata power ddl Project, New Delhi along with the traffic police, took a traffic rules awareness drive on the occasion of Road Safety Week.

Andaman

Prayas JAC organized an awareness program at Govt Girls Senior Secondary School, engaging students in discussions on self-love, career guidance, and gender sensitization. Eager to empower and inspire these young minds!

An orientation session was organized for school students. Stress management, Time management and Career Guidance was the topic for class X & XII students of Nirmala Senior Secondary School.

Andaman

Kashmir

PrayasJAC Society organised one-day Civil Defence cum Disaster Management training program at Anantnag Jammu and Kashmir.

The program marked a significant stride towards community resilience and preparedness.

The training program addressed a diverse range of topics essential for disaster management, covering aspects such as first aid, CPR, Emergency evacuation procedures, communication strategies during crises, and basic firefighting techniques. The comprehensive curriculum was designed to equip participants with practical skills, fostering a sense of confidence in their ability to contribute meaningfully during unforeseen events. The collaboration with Civil Defence Anantnag added invaluable expertise to the training program.

It was a delight to witness the 'SAKSHAM NAARI SASHAKT BHARAT' - Women in the workforce for Viksit Bharat on the 30th January, 2024.

This program was jointly organised by the Ministry of Women and Child Development and Ministry of Labour and Employment, Government of India.

The highlight of the event was-

- 1) The launch of National Minimum Standards and Protocol for Crèches (Operation and Management)
- 2) The release of Advisory for employers to promote gender equality and women work force participation.

The event was graced and chaired by Mrs. Smriti Zubin Irani, Hon'ble Minister, Ministry of Women and Child Development and Minority Affairs and Mr. Bhupender Yadav, Hon'ble Minister, Ministry of Labour and Employment and Environment, Forest and Climate Change.

Awareness Campaign

East Champaran

Prayas Juvenile AID Center, East Champaran, conducted the program under the Access to Justice Project and all the rural women and men present on the occasion were given detailed information about human trafficking and social issues like child sexual exploitation, child marriage. An appeal was made to remove the evil practices. The present children, girls and rural men and women were given an oath not to do child marriage and they were told that they will not marry until the age of girls is 18 years and the age of boys is 21 years. If they do so then they will not marry. So legal action can be taken against the parents. An appeal was made to help in removing such evil from their village and making their village child marriage free.

East Champaran

Prayas participated in a one day Awareness Training program on Human Trafficking and Low Procedures . The objective of this program was to repatriate the children freed from trafficking in India and Nepal.

ACHIEVEMENTS

BRICS CCI COMMUNITY EXCELLENCE AWARDS

It is indeed a very proud moment for the entire Prayas family for receiving the BRICS CCI COMMUNITY EXCELLENCE AWARD IN LEADERSHIP.

This recognition award, organised by the BRICS Chamber of Commerce and Industry (BRICS CCI), is given for various fields within the BRICS nations and beyond.

This proud moment is a testament to the collective efforts, dedication and support of so many incredible individuals who have been a part of this incredible journey.

Receiving this award is a recognition of the countless hours of hardwork, perseverance and collaboration.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude and congratulations to all the board members and the co-workers associated directly and indirectly to Prayas for it is the combined strength of a supportive network that propels us to greater heights. This wouldn't be possible without our General Secretary Mr. Amod K. Kanth whose diligent efforts and inspiring leadership has always motivated us to give in our best.

However, we must also remember that this award is not just a symbol of appreciation but also serves as a reminder of the duties and responsibilities we bear, and motivates us to uphold our commitments towards the children and other marginalised sections.

This award is a reminder that challenges are opportunities, setbacks are lessons, and with dedication, we can together achieve remarkable things.

On 24/01/2024 , Hon'ble President Mrs. Draupadi Murmu inaugurated the Kaushal Bhawan at New Moti Bagh , New Delhi. Only 02 JSSs from throughout India were selected to display the products produced by their beneficiaries. JSS Prayas , Jahangir Puri , Delhi being one of them. Our beneficiary namely Ms. Meghana was given the golden opportunity to showcase her creative potential by displaying her products. Hon'ble President highly appreciated the products of Meghna and her talent while interacting with her.
