About the Project, Access to Justice (A2J)-

Access to justice for children is an inspirational and important Child Right's Program being implemented by PRAYAS in 12 Districts in Bihar, Andaman & Gujarat. The project is a monumental step towards ensuring Access to justice for children and their families who are victims of Child Sex Abuse, Trafficking and Child labour. The project aspires to provide access to holistic development to as many children as possible with its carefully designed project.

The implementation of the project in accordance with the programme design will identify the issues in legal processes to ensure speedy justice and rectify those issues with legal intervention in coordination with the DLSA (District Legal Services Authority). The focus of the programme on compensation and livelihood of the families will eliminate the issues of the re-trafficking and provide the survivors with rehabilitation support.
